A Look Thru Time

25+ years of experience

Leagh has been researching her family history for over 20 years. She's taught the subject for Greenville Tech and the S.C. Jaycee's and is the author of History Made Real: 500+ Interactive Ideas to Bring History to Life.

She has a deep love for history and the impact it has on our lives today. She is particularly drawn to her ancestral homeland of Scotland.

During her time as an Activity Director she often presented interactive historical programs to her residents.

She would love to have you visit with you virtually or in person to speak or present a dramatic monologue or interactive program as we look thru the glasses of time for a deeper view of the people and life in earlier cultures and era's and how they continue to impact our lives today.

Leagh is available for dramatic presentations, as a keynote speaker, lecturer or in a teaching setting.
